

Everyone loves shopping and exploring on trips and vacations.
But how comfortable do you feel doing it?

● Où est la cabine d'essayage?

How do you do the following things:

Locate a shop when you are lost but you are certain is nearby?

Approach the salesperson in a boutique or department store (what do you say first)?

How do you indicate the size you want? How do you ask if there is a larger or smaller size?

Do you know the correct words for different colors, different materials and different articles of clothing?

Do you know how to ask the cost?

How do you know when something is on sale – and how do you ask if there is a sale coming up?

How do you explain what you like or do not like to a salesperson trying to aid you?

Where do you go to try on an article of clothing?

How do you ask where to pay?

How would you say you are only window-shopping?

● Il faut traverser le pont?

Do you know how to get around in order to accomplish the things you want to accomplish?

How do you ask for the following things:

- to buy a daily paper in English

- if the film you want to see is showing in English with French subtitles or if is entirely dubbed into French?

- where should you get off the train?

- which metro line do you take?

- how far is it to the nearest gas station?

- how is this word spelled?

- how long does it take to travel there?

- from which platform will your train depart?

- when will the bank be open?

- can I/how do I use the ATM?
